

Carolyn H. Langan

November 30, 2018

Carolyn H. Langan, 92, long-time resident of West Hartford passed away Friday (November 30, 2018) after a short illness. Born in Lynbrook, New York to the late Gordon W. and Emma H. Rand, Carolyn graduated Summa Cum Laude from Adelphi University where she was a life-long member of the Tri Delta Sorority.

Soon after completing her degree Carolyn met her loving husband of 52 years Richard F. Langan while both working at AT&T in Manhattan, New York. A Matriarch in the truest sense, Carolyn was a beloved wife, mother and grandmother who dedicated her life to her family and was a loving guiding force until the end.

Carolyn is survived by two daughters, Adrienne Malinowski and Grace Anne Inkel, both of South Windsor; and three sons, Richard C. Langan and his wife Karen of Southington, Gordon F. Langan of Altmar, NY, and John Langan of Cheshire. She also held great love and affection for her three grandchildren; Michelle Malinowski and Joshua and Gabrielle Inkel; sister-in-law Marilyn Ballard of West Hartford, cousin Sue Wendt of Dade City Florida, niece Karen Santana and her husband Walter of Wethersfield and nephew Gary Rand, his wife Anne and their children Emily and Steven of Redding, Massachusetts.

Carolyn was predeceased by her husband Richard F. Langan and brother Edward Rand of West Hartford.

The Langan Family would like to extend heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the loving, caring staff at The Reservoir as well as the caregivers from Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care who helped guide Carolyn through her last days. We would also like to thank the many people and home health organizations that enabled Carolyn to remain in her home throughout her final years. Special thanks to "Keep Me Home" as well as Carolyn's home healthcare coordinator Mary Fuller.

“ Mrs. Langan, You were the sweetest and most pleasant person to be around and we will miss seeing you at family gatherings and holidays. We always loved reading your Christmas cards that you sent to us each year, putting your personal touch in the card. To Rich, Grace, Adrienne and family, my condolences to you all. Always cherish the memories you had with your mom, grandmother, aunt, etc.

“ Mom Langan,

You were a wonderful mother-in-law, the best a daughter-in-law could ever imagine to have! You were supportive, caring and never a bother. In fact, we had to reach out to you most of the time to make sure you were okay or to check to see if you needed anything.

You raised an incredible son with Rich. He was devoted to your well-being and loved you more than you can imagine. I'm sure you knew that though. As you cared for your family, always putting yourself last, Rich is a "chip off the old block". You, me and the rest of our families are always first and he always takes a back seat to his needs and wants. Thank you for the man you raised!

I will miss you always and especially at our family gatherings. I hope you are sharing a wonderful meal with my POP, Grandmother, Dad Langan and all those that have gone before you. It will be a table filled with wonderful people and memories as will ours thinking of you!

Love you forever,

Karen

“ I am so very sad to hear about Mrs. Langan's passing. I've know her my entire life and I really loved her. She was like a second Mom when I was growing up. I loved that she would hug me and make me feel special. I have a special memory of when I was very little, maybe 5 or 6 years old. There was a large Santa on the back of her front door and I desperately wanted my picture taken with that Santa. Mrs. Langan took my picture and to this day, I absolutely love it. Thank you so much Mrs. Langan. You are a very sweet woman and you will be incredibly missed. Heaven is lucky to have it's newest angel. My deepest condolences to Adrienne, Grace, Richard, Gordon and the grandkids.

“ Mom, you have been there for me every day of my life.... You kept our family together through thick and thin while never asking for anything in return. I will forever cherish your quiet wit and sense of humor that was so often delivered (even during the toughest times) with a little grin and a twinkle in your eye... Life will go on I know, but our guiding light will no longer be there.... I love you so much Mom.... In my heart forever.

Love Your Son, Rich
