

Hermann Hani

October 23, 2020

Hermann Hani, 87, of West Hartford, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2020, at Avery Heights Nursing Home. He grew up on a farm in Diessbach, Switzerland before immigrating to the US at age 23. For over 30 years he worked as a land surveyor. Hermann was a long time member of the Hartford Saengerbund where he enjoyed singing, golfing, eisstockschiessen (curling), and a good beer (or two). He served as the permittee of the Saaengerbund for many years. We will miss his beautiful smile and melodious baritone.

He is survived by his wife, Trudi; daughters Susanne (Bruce) Bussert and Carol (Ian Agranat) Hani; grandsons Timothy, Colin, Sam and Adam; and his siblings in Switzerland Samuel, Frieda, Walter, Elisabeth, Ernst, and Hannah. He was predeceased by his brother Fritz. Many thanks to the caregivers at Avery Heights. Services will be private. In lieu of flowers, please raise a glass in Hermann's honor. “ I remember the times Hermann and Trudi came to visit us in Switzerland very fondly. We always shared a nice meal at my grandmothers house and we talked for hours. I still remember how my mom would try to get me to talk to Hermann in English, as I just started learning it back then.

My heartfelt condolences to Trudi and their family.
Rest in Peace Hermann
