“ “Uncle” Ken was one of the kindest men I’ve known. A Good Man. Always positive. My Dads best and lifelong friend. I think they are fishing together in heaven about now. We will miss you Uncle Ken

“ Dear Mary and family,

Ken will be missed by many and I will be at the front of the line for that. I will miss his smiles, hugs, and above all, his electrifying energy! I have always told people how much energy you would feel when Ken walked into a room. Beginning our friendship at Capewell and continuing it afterwards just felt like it would go on forever. He was a very special person, and I am sorry for his family, friends and the rest of the world, that he is no longer here to brighten up everything around him.

My (and Pete’s) thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of sorrow.
