

Mae DiFabio

May 27, 2020

Mae A. DiFabio, 93, of Bloomfield, passed away quietly at her home on May 27th, 2020. She leaves her daughter Mev Norige, daughter and son-in-law, Susan and Seth Nussbaum and son and daughter-in-law Peter and Linda DiFabio. She also leaves grandchildren Danielle Murphy, Scott Nussbaum, Michael, Christina, and Carla. Mae was blessed to have help care for her in later years, her granddaughter Danielle, and great granddaughters Kaysen Rovins, and Laurel Murphy. Mae was an avid gardener and lover of all things green. She enjoyed travelling but was especially fond of her summer home at Point O'Woods Beach in South Lyme, CT. She spent every summer since 1952 at her vacation home with her family. Lastly she always loved time spent with Mev's "furbaby", Ernie.

She will be dearly missed by her daughter Mev, who took care of her needs for the past 15 years. Mae was a wonderful friend to many, and a wonderful mom and grandmother. A Memorial Mass will be held at Sacred Heart Church in Bloomfield at a later date. Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, West Hartford has care of arrangements. “ Dear Mev, Susan and Peter ,
We were very sad to read of cousin Mae’s passing . Mae was always so wonderful to us. From hosting our bridal shower to always inviting us to visit at Point O’ Woods . Visiting with her when she came to see Elvira and Tony . She will be greatly missed and very fondly remembered.

“ Condolences from the Ann and Timothy Griffin family from Point O Woods. When my mom was alive, and we were at Point o Woods she always spoke highly of Mae. I think they went to high school together. May she rest in peace.

“ Mae was a true lady with an outstanding sense of humor. I had the pleasure and honor of working with her while we were at the Bloomfield Public Schools. She loved her family so much and spoke of them often. Heaven has gained another angel.

“ Mev, Susan & Peter - I am so sorry about your Mom! I have so many memories of her but one is still so clear; like it was yesterday. It brought tears to my eyes and then I could help but smile. I hope it does the same for you. It was Ash Wednesday and she decided it was okay for me to come along and see what that was about. But when it was time for me to go home, she reminded me to wash my face before my Jewish mother saw me! Missing the good old days...
In sympathy- Tami
