

Pamela (Shattuck) Burleigh

September 17, 1931 - April 19, 2011

Pam Burleigh, 79, died in Bloomfield on Tuesday April 19, 2011. She was the beloved wife of the late John Burleigh. Pam loved her husband and adored her children. She loved dogs and babies. She loved her friends. She loved life. Pam was a gourmet cook. She loved camping and gardening. She liked to dance to the radio in the kitchen. She loved power shopping with her daughter and passing the “skill” on to her granddaughter. Pam retired from Kingswood School after a long career as assistant in the Office of College Counseling. She was loved and honored by the students many times over the years. She was a volunteer at Hartford Hospital for many years in the Oncology ward, providing comfort, kind words, and support to those suffering from cancer, and to bereaved loved ones. Pam raised her family in West Hartford. She moved to Brunswick, Maine after the death of her husband, and returned to CT in 2005 after suffering from strokes. Pam most recently attended Asylum Hill Congregational Church in Hartford. Pam will be dearly missed by her son, Christopher Burleigh; her daughter, Lane Burleigh; her son-in-law, Timothy Owens; her grandchildren, Tyler and Samantha Owens; and many dear friends. Pam is also survived by her sister, Susan Benson, brother, Milton Shattuck, and sister, Pat Rahmann. A family service will take place in Maine at a later date. “ Kristine - Thank you for the kind words. I have been unable to reach a lot of Pam's friends to pass along the news of her passing. I'm relieved that you at least heard through channels.

“ I was sorry to see the passing of pam. I saw her last in the fall of 2010 I believe with Chris. It was hard to see her failing, but she remained quite stoic and happy. It was always a pleasure to interact with her and your family.

with best regards
